

Outstanding New Librarian Award

To recognize a Florida librarian who is new to the profession, has made significant contributions to their library and librarianship, and demonstrates potential for professional development.

Eligibility:

Nominee must:

- Be employed full-time in a professional capacity as a librarian in a Florida academic, public, school or special library.
- Obtained an MLS or MLIS degree from an ALA-accredited library school no more than five years ago.
- Have one full year of library service in Florida prior to their nomination.

The nominator must be a current member of the Florida Library Association.

Criteria:

Eligible nominees will have:

- Made a substantial contribution to librarianship in their area of expertise.
 - Performed above and beyond set job expectations.
 - Demonstrated a commitment to the library on their campus or in their community.
 - Demonstrated leadership in innovative programs or services.
1. I am nominating this person because... (Character Limit: 400)
 2. Share examples of how the nominee has expanded his/her career to show future leadership potential. (Character Limit: 2,000)
 3. How has the nominee shown commitment to the library profession?(Character Limit: 2,000)
 4. What impact has the nominee had on the library and/or community? (Character Limit: 2,000)
 5. Has the nominee planned or implemented programs? If so please describe. (Character Limit: 2,000)
 6. Discuss the nominee's contributions to a specific aspect of library service within their area of expertise. (Character Limit: 2,000)
 7. Is there anything else you would like to share about your nominee? (Character Limit: 2,000)